E. NASBA TASK FORCE UPDATE

Maria Caldwell, Director of Compliance Services and Jessica Luttrull, Manager of National Registry were present for this item.

Ms. Luttrull informed the board that NASBA was revising their CPE Standards. She explained the role of the CPE Standards, how it establishes requirements for the development and administration of CPE programs, establishes areas of responsibilities for the providers and provides uniform CPE language. Ms. Luttrull informed the board that the CPE Standards-Background was revised in 2001, she explained how the implementation questions were handled, and that there is now a Task Force to help review; analyze and implement suggestions as well as changes. She explained there are thirteen Task Force participants; the members include representation from State Boards as well as NASBA's board. Ms. Luttrull gave an overview of the process undertaken by the Task Force, and the outcomes of the Task Force. She explained that the joint AICPA/NASBA CPE Standards Committee reviews the recommendation of the CPE Task Force, and the CPE Standards are posted for an exposure period. Ms. Luttrell informed the board of the impact to Registry/QAS Programs, currently Registry and QAS self study sponsors are held to the same written requirements with the exception of QAS sponsors which have to participate of at least one CPE in the development of every program in accounting and auditing. 18. FICPA

A. DISCUSSION

Mr. Hevia reported to the BOA on behalf of the FICPA to give them an update on the status of the peer review legislation the Board of Accountancy endorsed last year. Mr. Hevia advised that the legislation passed the Senate but failed to get into a conference committee bill, therefore the bill is dead for this legislative session. Mr. Hevia reported that the FICPA plans to reintroduce a peer review bill in the next legislative session and is looking for continuing support from the Board of Accountancy. There were a few issues raised about the provisions of the proposed bill regarding public records exemption and cost reimbursement for committee service. Both these matters will be looked at. John Johnson, Director of Governmental Affairs for the FICPA, will be available to provide a more detailed legislative update at a future board meeting.
