

Food Manager Certification

Florida law requires food managers to complete training and pass a certification exam within 30 days of employment.

Private entities provide the training and testing.

Food manager certification must be completed through one of the accredited examination programs listed at the following link:

ANSI-CFP Accreditation Program \(Accredited\)

Florida law requires all public food service establishments to provide the division with proof of food manager certification upon request, including but not limited to when the division inspects the establishment.

More information is available on the division website at:

www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/hotels-restaurants/food-lodging/food-manager/

September 2023

Food Manager Certification

Florida law requires food managers to complete training and pass a certification exam within 30 days of employment.

Private entities provide the training and testing.

Food manager certification must be completed through one of the accredited examination programs listed at the following link:

ANSI-CFP Accreditation Program \(Accredited\)

Florida law requires all public food service establishments to provide the division with proof of food manager certification upon request, including but not limited to when the division inspects the establishment.

More information is available on the division website at:

www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/hotels-restaurants/food-lodging/food-manager/

September 2023