

Search for Licensee Details

Information regarding condominiums licensed by the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation can be found on the Department's website - <https://www2.myfloridalicense.com>.

On the homepage, select the button labeled "Verify A License."

After selecting "Verify A License," you will be redirected to the Department's online licensing portal. From there, you can search for information on any of the businesses and professionals licensed by DBPR, including condominiums, by Name, License Number, City or County, or License Type as shown below.

Select your preferred detail to search by and then select the "Search" button to continue. Searching by name is the default selection.

After selecting “Search,” you will be redirected to a page to complete the search.

To search for information on a specific condominium, enter the licensee detail in the text field. The example below shows how to search by name. To search by name, enter the name of the condominium in the “Organization/Establishment field” and select “Search.” You may fill in the Additional Search Criteria fields to refine the search, but it is not necessary. To refine or increase the number of search results to fit your needs, you may check the box to only search names beginning with exactly what you type. For more search results, check the box to include names with alternate spellings to what you typed.

After selecting "Search," you will be redirected to a list of licenses that match the criteria entered on the previous page with the license type, the name of the licensee, the name type, the license number, and the status of the license.

Note that your search will display all DBPR licensees matching your criteria. Condominium associations are labeled "Managing Entity" in the "License Number/Rank" and "License Type" column. Condominium buildings are labeled "Condo Project". For complaints filed against the condominium association, look for the license type "Managing Entity" with the status "Approved" in the "Status/Expires" column, that corresponds with the condominium association. Select the hyperlinked name of the licensee to view information on the licensee, including complaints.

On each page for licensee details, there are three links towards the bottom for additional information: View Related License Information, View License Complaint, and View Additional Information.

“View Related License Information” will provide information on related licenses connected with the license you searched for.

“View License Complaint” will show complaints against the licensee, including Number, Class, Incident Date, Status, Disposition, and Disposition Date.

Number is the identifying number assigned to the case, where the first digits will be the year it was filed. Class is the type of complaint filed with the Department. Incident Date is the date of the alleged violation. Status is the current status of the complaint. Disposition is the Division’s final decision on the complaint and Disposition Date is the date which that decision was entered.

Note, investigations and some complaints are confidential pursuant to Florida Statutes and will not be listed on this page. If you would like a full list of public complaints against an individual or entity or to make a public records request for complaints listed, please visit the Department’s Public Records page.

“View Additional Information” will provide additional information regarding the license.
