

Did you know?

- That the former board member must relinquish the official records and/or association property within 5 days after the election?
- That the Division may only attempt to impose a civil penalty if it can be established that the former board member's failure to relinquish the official records or association property was willful and knowing? This is more than mere neglect or mistake.

