Major Issues/Actions

- Anthony Spivey was introduced as the new Executive Director to the Community Association Managers' Council.
- It was noted that board member Marilyn Battista resigned because of health reasons. At this time the Governor has not accepted her letter of resignation. The council requested that a plaque be presented to Ms. Battista.
- The council discussed the requirements for privatization with the department. Mr. Martinez explained the requirements to move in that direction. Upon receipt of the information, the council requested Molly Foley-Healy to provide a letter to CAM associations requesting funding for the feasibility study of privatization of the profession. The Council also requested of the Executive Director to provide any available information on the process from other boards or councils in the department that privatized.
